- All fees payable one week in advance either on a Friday or Monday or on the 1st day your child is due into the Nursery. The following methods of payment are acceptable:
Cash (please bring correct amount), Debit/Credit Card.
- When booking your child a place a minimum of 2 sessions must be booked.
- When booking your child's place a deposit of one week's fee's must be paid up front.
- For Breakfast and Afterschool club can you please tell us on a Friday what sessions your child will be doing for the following week. You will then be charged the requested sessions if your child attends or not.
- If your child is eligible for 15 or 30 free hours your fee total will be discounted. Please note you will only receive the 15 or 30 free hour discount during term time for 38 weeks of the year. During holidays you will be charged the full amount unless you request a term time place at the nursery or we stretch your entitlement over 52 weeks.
- All sessions must be paid for including sick days, holidays and bank holidays (including Easter and Christmas). This also applies if your child stays for meals.
- 4 weeks notice is required in writing if you wish to change your child's days or hours at nursery. Please email your request to enquiries@unicornnursery.co.uk.
- 4 weeks notice is required in writing when your child leaves the nursery.
- We offer an 'open house' service where you can drop off and collect your child at any time during the hours of your sessions but if your child requires breakfast, lunch or tea they must be within the nursery at the times stated above. Unfortunately due to food hygiene standards we can no longer save meals.
- If you do not pay your fees on time unfortunately you will be refused entry and charged a late payment fee of £25.00.
- If you are late to collect your child at the stated times you will be charged a late fee of £25.
